There was no change in the financial report. The balance is $1,636.24.

Completed workshops

There were no workshops in May.

Proposed Workshops, Status Reports

September 30: Tween/Teen Readers' Advisory – Sally Wilcox . The flyer is out, nothing new to report.

October 1: Disaster Planning for Libraries – Mary Kay Moran. After a discussion of the cost for presenting the workshop it was determined that the price for attending would be $20 to $25. Mary Kay will double check expenses before determining final charge. Pam will forward the flyer template to Mary Kay so she can get the flyer ready.

November 19: Adult Services Roundtable. The discussion issues at this roundtable will be Adult Reading Programs and fundraising for the programs. They will also share additional ideas for home grown programs. Pam will do the flyer and get it to Sheryl for putting it on the calendar. Pam will also send out a save the date e-mail. The roundtable will be at Georgetown Township Library. Participants will be asked to share ideas and any written information they have about Adult Reading Programs. Carol will do the evaluations and Mary Kay will facilitate the discussion. Registration deadline will be Nov. 8.

Early Literacy in Story Times – Carol DeBoer. Carol will contact the presenter to get a current price so that we can decide if we want to hold the workshop without a co-sponsor.

Adult Services Reader's Advisory – Carol DeBoer and Karla Bates are working on this workshop to be presented possibly in March. They will be meeting later to discuss genres to be covered at the workshop.

MeL, LLC, KDL workshops

July 16 and 23: MeL Databases Essentials Parts A & B – Mary Reed
Fall 2010 – KDL scheduled MeL Children and Teens Databases

Other Business

A program on Dewey classification, especially tables, has been requested. Pam will ask at Advisory Council if there would be interest in this kind of program. It was noted that some libraries are going Deweyless and using Book Industry Categories to arrange their books.

Next Meeting - July 22, 2010, 1:30 P.M. at the Georgetown Township Library

Meeting adjourned at 3:00 P.M.
